A Panel on Learning ePortfolios

Feb. 6, 2021

Facilitated by: Emily Jo Schwallar and Katie Southard
General Education and OIA
Zoom Poll: Checking In

What is your experience with ePortfolios?
★ I’m very comfortable and have lots of experience
★ I have some experience but I’m not super confident yet
★ I’m very new to the topic and curious to learn
★ Somewhere in between all of these!
What is a Learning ePortfolio?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Learning Portfolio</th>
<th>Showcase Portfolio</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Content: could include work in progress, drafts, goals, plans in addition to “finished” work</td>
<td>Content: curated collection of exemplary work, formal and/or verified</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Focus: the ePortfolio process</td>
<td>Focus: the ePortfolio product</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Goals: Exploratory and developmental, self-knowledge, growth over time, developing your intellectual identity</td>
<td>Goals: outward-facing, networking, developing your professional identity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Audience: teachers, institution, self</td>
<td>Audience: employers, grad-schools, professionals, the public</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Although learning ePortfolios start by focusing on process the skills developed can help students create showcase portfolios using the same practices, skills, and knowledge base.
An Introduction to Our Panelists

Kiera Eason: UArizona Honors Student and Environmental Studies Preceptor

Charlette Padilla: Fashion Minor Coordinator, Norton School, Fashion Industry’s Science and Technology, Associate Professor

Catrina Mitchum: Interim Associate Director of Online-Writing Program, Senior Lecturer, Writing Program, Affiliate Faculty: Rhetoric, Composition, and the Teaching of English (RCTE)
Please join us for our next sessions:

- Introduction to Learning ePortfolios (2/6)
- Inclusivity, Accessibility, Technology and Learning ePortfolios (2/16)
- Learning ePortfolios Across the Disciplines (2/18)

Resources

- PEARL: Publications on ePortfolio: Archives of the Research Landscape
- The Field Guide to ePortfolios: Why It Matters for Learning
- ePortfolios for Reflection: 7 Best Practices
- The International Journal of ePortfolio
- Principles and Practices in Electronic Portfolios